MONDAY MORNING
OPENING GENERAL SESSION

Standout Relationships: Life Would Be Easy If It Weren't for Other People

CONNIE PODESTA | Hall of Fame Keynote Speaker and Author

Imagine what you could accomplish if you could understand what makes people do what they do and say what they say. Our ability to get along with others, at work and at home, is key to success. How we choose to relate to, communicate with, be accountable to, resolve conflict with and garner respect from other people directly impacts our ability to be happy, develop healthy relationships, collaborate effectively and experience success. Human relations expert Connie Podesta will share insight and tools to help us act rather than just react to whatever life throws our way.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON
CLOSING SESSION

Adapt and Elevate: Improving Performance Through Metacognition

MICHAEL BONNER | Teacher of the Year and Published Author

The entire world was forced to stop due to COVID-19 as it wreaked havoc across multiple industries. It dismantled many businesses and forced most organizations into emergency online systems. Despite all of the damage that has taken place, we have been presented with a prime opportunity to reimagine how we operate from a new perspective! In this keynote, Michael Bonner breaks down important principles of environment and culture, the importance of purposeful collaboration, and how self-development can create a higher level of performance.
